

St Ursula's College is a Catholic Boarding and Day school for girls in the beachside community of Yeppoon, 40 kilometres east of Rockhampton, Central Queensland.

The College is entering an exciting new phase of growth and renewal, so applications are invited for the position:

Head of Boarding

This position will commence in January 2021; however, an earlier start could be favourably considered. This is a full time, salaried position with remuneration commensurate with qualifications and experience.

The successful applicant will;

- have qualifications in Residential Care, while qualifications in Social Welfare, Counselling and/or Education are highly desirable;
- have a minimum of 5 years current experience working in/managing a Boarding House environment or similar;
- have a genuine interest in working with teenage girls and an ability to understand and assist with the challenges they face;
- have a current First Aid certificate;
- have a current drivers' licence (Class "C" mandatory) (Class "LR" highly desirable);
- have current positive notice issued by Blue Card Services.
- Be supportive of the Catholic Ethos and Presentation Traditions of the College

The residential requirements of the Head of Boarding and the associated accommodation will be discussed at interview. Relocation costs will be negotiated.

Your Application, which should include the Application for Employment Form, a statement addressing the Selection Criteria, a Resume and contact details of three (3) referees should be forwarded to:
