This Privacy Policy applies to St Ursula's College and sets out how the college manages personal information and your rights in relation to your personal information, including how to complain and how we deal with complaints.

St Ursula's College is bound by the Australian Privacy Principles contained in the Commonwealth Privacy Act 1988 (Privacy Act). In relation to health records the College is bound by the relevant State legislation.

Under the Privacy Act, the Australian Privacy Principles do not apply to certain treatment of an employee record. As a result, this Privacy Policy does not apply to the college's treatment of an employee record held by the college, where the treatment is directly related to a current or former employment relationship between the college and the employee.

The College may, from time to time, review and update this Privacy Policy to take account of new laws and technology, changes to college operations and practices and to make sure it remains appropriate to the changing education environment. The current version of this Privacy Policy is published on our website.

How we collect personal information

Personal information you provide: the college will generally collect personal information about an individual directly from the individual (or their Parent in the case of students). This includes by way of forms, face-to-face meetings and interviews, emails and telephone calls.

Enrolment applications: This personal information may include health information and is used for the purpose of considering and administering the enrolment of the student.

Personal information provided by other people: In some circumstances the college may be provided with personal information about an individual from a third party, for example a report provided by a medical professional, a reference from another school or a referee for a job applicant. If a student transfers to a new school, the new school may collect personal information about the student from the student's previous school to facilitate the transfer of the student.

Personal information from other sources: We may also collect personal information through surveillance activities such as CCTV security cameras and student email and internet monitoring.

Purposes for which we collect, use and disclose personal information

The purposes for which the college collects, uses and discloses personal information depend on our relationship with you and include the following:

Students and Parents

- providing schooling and school activities;
- satisfying the needs of Parents, the needs of students and the needs of the school throughout the whole period a student is enrolled at the school;
- making required reports to government authorities;

- keeping Parents informed about matters related to their child’s schooling, through correspondence, apps, newsletters and magazines;
- day-to-day administration, including seeking the payment of fees
- looking after students’ educational, social, spiritual and health wellbeing;
- seeking donations for the College (see the ‘Fundraising’ section of this Privacy Policy); and
- to satisfy the Colleges’ legal obligations and allow the school to discharge its duty of care.

Volunteers:

- to contact you about, and administer, the volunteer position;
- for insurance purposes; and
- satisfying the College’s legal obligations, for example, in relation to child protection legislation.

Job applicants and contractors:

- assessing and (if successful) engaging the applicant or contractor;
- administering the individual’s employment or contract;
- seeking donations for the College (see the ‘Fundraising’ section of this Privacy Policy);]
- for insurance purposes; and
- satisfying the College’s legal obligations, for example, in relation to child protection legislation.

Who we disclose personal information to

The College may disclose personal information, including sensitive information, for educational, care and administrative purposes, and to seek support and advice. This may include to:

- other schools and teachers at those schools, including a new school to which a student transfers to facilitate the transfer of the student, and schools within the same diocese where concurrent applications for enrolment are made to those schools;
- government departments (including for policy and funding purposes);
- the Queensland Catholic Education Commission (QCEC), the College Diocese/Archdiocese and the parish, other related church agencies/entities, and schools within other Dioceses/other Dioceses;

- the school's local parish;
- medical practitioners;
- people providing educational, support and health services to the school, including specialist visiting teachers, [sports] coaches, volunteers, and counsellors;
- providers of specialist advisory services and assistance to the school, including in the area of Human Resources, child protection and students with additional needs;
- providers of learning and assessment tools;
- assessment and educational authorities, including the Australian Curriculum, Assessment and Reporting Authority (ACARA) and NAPLAN Test Administration Authorities (who will disclose it to the entity that manages the online platform for NAPLAN);
- agencies and organisations to whom we are required to disclose personal information for education and research purposes;
- people and organisations providing administrative, technology and financial services to the school;
- other providers of our information management and storage system and other information technology services;
- recipients of school publications, such as newsletters and magazines;
- students' parents or guardians;
- anyone you authorise the school to disclose information to; and
- anyone to whom we are required or authorised to disclose the information by law, including child protection laws.

How we store personal information

The College may store your personal information in hard copy and electronically and uses information management and storage systems provided by third party service providers. Personal information is stored with and accessible by the third party service providers for the purpose of providing services to the college in connection with the Systems.

The College may use online or 'cloud' service providers to store personal information and to provide services to the College that involve the use of personal information. See further the section below 'Sending and storing information overseas.'

Sending and storing information overseas

The College may disclose personal information about an individual to overseas recipients in certain circumstances, for instance, to facilitate a school exchange. The college may use other online or 'cloud' service providers to store personal information and to provide online services to the school that involve the use of personal information, such as services relating to email, instant messaging and education and assessment applications. Some limited personal information may also be provided to these service providers to enable them to authenticate users that access their services and provide technical support. This personal information may be stored in the 'cloud' which means that it may reside on a cloud service provider's servers which may be situated outside Australia. An example of such a cloud service providers is Google and Microsoft 365. Google provides the 'Google Apps for Education' (GAFE) including Gmail, and stores and processes limited personal information for this purpose. College personnel, the CEO, the QCEC and their service providers may have the ability to access, monitor, use or disclose emails, communications (e.g., instant messaging), documents and associated administrative data for the purposes of administering GAFE and ensuring its proper use.

Fundraising

The College treats seeking donations for future growth and development of the college, as an important part of ensuring that the college continues to be a quality learning environment in which both students and staff thrive. Your personal information may be used to make an appeal to you.

It may also be disclosed to an organisation that assists in the school's fundraising activities, for example, the school's alumni organisation and, on occasions, external fundraising organisations. If you do not want to receive fundraising communications from the college, please contact our Business Manager.

Security of personal information

The college has in place steps to protect the personal information held from misuse, interference and loss, unauthorised access, modification, or disclosure by use of various methods including locked storage of paper records and password access rights to computerised records.

These steps include:

- Restricting access to information on the college databases on a need-to-know basis with different levels of security being allocated to staff based on their roles and responsibilities and security profile.
- Ensuring all staff are aware that they are not to reveal or share personal passwords.
- Ensuring where personal and health information is stored in hard copy files that these files are stored in lockable filing cabinets in lockable rooms. Access to these records is restricted to staff on a need-to-know basis.

- Implementing physical security measures around college buildings and grounds to prevent break-ins.
- Implementing ICT security systems, policies and procedures, designed to protect personal information storage on our computer networks.
- Undertaking due diligence with respect to third party service providers who may have access to personal information, including cloud service providers, to ensure as far as practicable that they are compliant with the Australian Privacy Principles or a similar privacy regime.

Access and correction of personal information

Students will generally be able to access and update their personal information through their Parents, but older students may seek access and correction themselves. There are some exceptions to these rights set out in the applicable legislation. To make a request to access, update or correct any personal information the College holds about you or your child, please contact the Business Manager by email, post or telephone at ursulas@stursulas.qld.edu.au or Locked Mail Bag 600, Yeppoon QLD 4703.

The College may require you to verify your identity and specify what information you require and may charge a reasonable fee for giving access to your personal information (but will not charge for the making of the request or to correct your personal information). If the information sought is extensive, the college will advise the likely cost in advance. If we decide to refuse your request, we will provide you with written notice explaining the reasons for refusal (unless, given the grounds for refusal, it would be unreasonable to provide reasons) and how to complain.

Parents can also log on to the TASS Parent Portal and correct and update some of their or their child's personal information at any time.

Consent and rights of access to the personal information of students

The College respects every Parent's right to make decisions concerning their child's education. Generally, the College personnel will refer any requests for consent and notices in relation to the personal information of a student to the student's Parents. Generally, the College will treat consent given by Parents as consent given on behalf of the student and notice to Parents will act as notice given to the student.

Parents may seek access to personal information held by the College about them or their child by contacting the Business Manager by telephone or in writing. However, there may be occasions when access is denied. Such occasions may include (but are not limited to) where the college believes the student has capacity to consent and the school is not permitted to disclose the information to the Parent without the student's consent, where release of the information would have an unreasonable impact on the privacy of others, or where the release may result in a breach of the school's duty of care to the student. The college may, at its discretion, on the request of a student grant that student access to information held by the school about them or allow a student to give or withhold consent to the use of their personal information, independently of their Parents. This would normally be done only when the maturity of the student and/or the student's personal circumstances warrant it.

Enquiries and complaints

If you would like further information about the way the College manages the personal information we hold, or wish to complain that you believe that college has breached the Australian Privacy Principles, please contact the College Principal by email, post or telephone at principal@stursulas.qld.edu.au or Locked Mail Bag 600, Yeppoon QLD 4703 or 07 49399600.

The college will investigate any complaint and will notify you of a decision in relation to your complaint as soon as is practicable after it has been made. If you are not satisfied with our response, you may complain to the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner (OAIC) via the OAIC website, www.oaic.gov.au
